

and recommend my soul into the hand of Almighty god that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give demise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.

(275) First, I give and bequeath to my dearly beloved wife, Elizabeth, two feather beds and furniture, one bay mare, two cows and calves and one heifer with my household furniture and moveable effects, as also the land and plantation whereon I now live containing sixty acres to be equally divided between Sarah and Pheba Warrick, children of Wiatt Warrick. I also give to my beloved Grandson Hartwell Brummet, son of Elizabeth Brummet, to share an equal part with my children, after paying all just debts.

I also constitute and appoint Wiatt Warrick, Bartley Reams to be sole executors of this my last Will and Testament and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former Testament, Wills, legacies, bequeasts and executors by me in any wise before named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of March 1808.

Jacob Warrick, (SEAL)

Signed sealed and delivered in presence of Joseph Swinney

her	(And further I do hereby give unto my son,
Mary X Warrick)	John Warrick, the sum of 25 cents, to be raised
mark	(and levied out of my estate as his only share
William (his X mark) Sharp)	thereof and disallow him of any share thereof.
Jeremiah Pate	(Jacob Warrick

The foregoing Will and Testament of Jacob Warrick dec'd was produced to Court for probate, whereupon Joseph Swinney, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto made oath that he saw the said Jacob Warrick sign, seal and heard him publish and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, that at the time of publishing the same he was of sound and perfect mind and memory to the best of his knowledge and belief and that he saw Mary Warrick, William Sharp and Jeremiah Pate sign their names as concurring evidence thereto, which Will was admitted to record.

Wiatt Warrick and Bartley Reams, executors.

JANUARY SESSIONS 1809

HANNAH SAWYERS

(282) pd The last Will and Testament of Hannah Sawyers ~~was~~ produced to Court for probate whereupon Alexander Forgy and Andrew Forgy, two of the subscribing witnesses made oath that they saw the said Hannah Sawyers sign seal and heard her pronounce and declare the same, with the annexed codicil, to be her last Will & Testament and that she was at the time of publishing the same of sound & perfect mind and memory to the best of their knowledge and belief and that they saw Nancy Sawyers sign her name as a concurring evidence thereto which Will is ordered to be recorded and is in these words to wit,

In the name of God Amen. I, Hannah Sawyers of Knox County and State of Tennessee, being in a very weak state of body and far advanced in the evening of my days, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all persons once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament; That is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching
